countries throughout the region. Challenging this stereotype and other outdated images of black women, Downtown Ladies offers a more complex picture by documenting the history of independent international traders—known as informal commercial importers, or ICIs—who travel abroad to import and export a vast array of consumer goods sold in the public markets of Kingston, Jamaica.

* Downtown Women ran three (3) physical and swab tests during the Thursday appointment. We were sent home and told not to worry. * We called the Dr on call that evening because my wife's back pain was unbearable. This is a woman that was doing boxing classes up until about 32 weeks (she's very strong and does not ever complain about pain).
